

Amelia (Miss Millie) has always had a passion for dance and musical theatre and started her training at the age of 3 at Betty Fox Stage School in Birmingham. Throughout her time there, she performed in many professional shows, tv commercials and tv dramas. Growing up, Millie also attended Rutleigh Norris Ballet School in Birmingham, was a member of the Royal Ballet Junior Associates and danced with The English Youth Ballet, National Youth Ballet and Ballet Creations.

After completing a 2 year course in Musical Theatre at Stratford College, Millie then successfully auditioned at the prestigious Laine Theatre Arts in Epsom where she trained for the next 3 years. On graduating, Millie then went on to perform professionally in the West End, International tours and on Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines.

Alongside performing, Millie began teaching at The Latham School of Dance part time until 2016 when she became a permanent teacher after gaining her IDTA teaching qualifications. In September 2018, Millie had the opportunity to buy The Latham School of Dance which she has cared so passionately about for years and became Principal.

She has thoroughly enjoyed being part of this school for many years and the passion and love she has for dance and musical theatre is widely evident. Millie cares about her students as if they were her own children and focuses on giving them numerous dance and musical theatre opportunities and experiences throughout the year whilst maintaining a strong element of fun balanced with professionalism!
